

Write Zone

Spend some time looking at these three words:

Honesty      integrity      truthfulness

Which word stands out more than the others?

Take this word and write it in the middle of a piece of paper. Now spend some time writing down what that word looks like in physical actions or scenarios. What kind of actions would a person who is honest do? How does a person with integrity act towards others?

