

Jesus sent his disciples out in twos to go and tell the world about him. He told them to take nothing except a staff and to wear a shirt and sandals. Can you dress the disciple ready for their journey? Cut out the shirt and fold that around the person. Cut out the shoes (separately) and attached with glue. Then finally, cut out the staff and stick it so he has it in his hand.

As you are getting your disciple ready, think about or chat to someone about what they were being sent to do- how would they have felt? Did they feel they had everything they needed? Would you be willing to go out like the disciples? Would you trust God to equip you for your journey? What do you think God might be asking you to do at Christ Church?
